Explanation of Jessamine Return of Credits

In August 2022, the principals were compelled to return a full allocation of credits for The Jessamine, a proposed 60-unit family community in Florence, SC. The principals were in the process of finalizing permitting for The Jessamine after receiving a 2021 LIHTC award when the county became aware of a strong contingency of NIMBYism from residents in the nearby neighborhood. The county instituted a moratorium and ultimately rezoned the parcel(s) to low density residential to block the project. Florence County previously provided zoning compliance letters and local funding support for the development. The principals immediately began to fight the illegal actions of the county but were ultimately forced to return the 2021 award of credits when it became clear they could not meet the carryover deadlines for the 2021 9% round. The principals of DHD Jessamine, LLC, two of whom are principals for this application, entered into a federal fair housing lawsuit with Florence County over this matter.

Dear Kim,

Pursuant to our most recent conference call with counsel, it is the consensus view that the pace of the legal proceedings are outside of our control and plaintiff's counsel will likely continue to slow-roll proceedings. While it pains us, it is reasonably foreseeable that this litigation could remain unresolved twelve months from now.

In light of the continuing uncertainty, and in recognition of the urgent housing needs within South Carolina, we believe it is in the best interest of all parties that the tax credits reserved for Oak Place be made available for another project at this time. Recycling the 2024 credits for 2025, could result in those credits remaining idle, a circumstance we are committed to avoid.

Accordingly, we hereby return the 2024 credit allocation for Oak Place, effective immediately, so that SC Housing may proceed with reallocating these credits to another qualified project.

Please advise if any additional documentation or formal action is required on our part to effectuate this return.

Respectfully,

Drew Schaumber

Subject: RE: Oak Place Call Confirmation and 10% Deadline

Drew,

Based on our conversation regarding Oak Place, SC Housing has agreed to the following options due to the development experiencing title issues.

Option 1: Turn in the 2024 9% tax credit reservation prior to November 15th, 2025, and receive no penalty.

Option 2: Recycle the 2024 9% tax credits for 2025 9% credits prior to November 15th, 2025. If

Option 2 is elected and the development team does not proceed with the rehab development or returns the 2025 credits, then the development team must sit out and not be able to submit an application in the Authority's next year's application rounds.

SC Housing will extend the 10% test deadline for Oak Place to October 31, 2025.

Kim

Subject: [External] Oak Place Call Confirmation and 10% Deadline

Kim,

I wanted to follow up from our conversation late last month on the legal situation we have with Oak Place and how we can proceed with our 2024 9% LIHTC reservation.

Per the call, the authority is giving us the following options which we need to elect one or the other prior to November 15th:

Option 1: Turn in the 2024 9% tax credit reservation prior to November 15th, 2025, and receive no penalty.

Option 2: Recycle the 2024 9% tax credits for 2025 9% credits prior to November 15th, 2025. If Option 2 is elected and we do not proceed with the rehab development, then we must sit out a year and not be able to submit a 9% application in the year we sit out.

Kim – will you please confirm our understanding above is correct.

In addition, the 10% test is due September 15th, how do we handle this for Oak Place? Can we disregard that 10% deadline or do we need to do something to push that date?

Thanks

Drew
