

Vision, Mission, Values

Vision

Mercy Housing is working to create a more humane world where poverty is alleviated, communities are healthy and all people can develop their full potential. We believe that affordable housing and supportive programs improve the economic status of residents, transform neighborhoods and stabilize lives.

Mission

To create stable, vibrant and healthy communities by developing, financing and operating affordable, program-enriched housing for families, seniors and people with special needs who lack the economic resources to access quality, safe housing opportunities.

Values

Mercy Housing holds as its core values:

- Respect - A basic perspective and behavior which is attentive, considerate and shows special regard for the inherent dignity of persons and the sacredness of creation.
- Justice - The fair and impartial treatment of others.
- Mercy - The ability to see need and respond with compassion.

Operating Commitments

Mercy Housing's commitment to creating a more humane world is at the core of our culture. It is evident in how we conduct an ethical, transparent business and in how we interact with our network of residents, communities, board, co-sponsors, volunteers, investors, partners and each other.

We are ethical: We maintain high ethical standards in the conduct of business.

We are accountable: We are accountable for the quality of our job performance, the responsible stewardship of the resources entrusted to us and for exemplifying our core values of respect, justice and mercy.

We are advocates: We advocate on behalf of the economically poor and support programs, policies and like-minded groups that create opportunities for them to create positive change in their lives.

We are diverse: We create an environment that supports and encourages diversity throughout the extended Mercy Housing community.

We are collaborative: We work collaboratively, seeking the input of those who are affected by our work, internally and externally, and partner with like-minded groups to achieve our mission.
