

Based on guidance from our legal counsel, we are not pursuing acquisition credits as part of this transaction. As a result, there is no requirement for us to submit an identity of interest opinion letter, since such documentation is only necessary when acquisition credits are being claimed. The project does not qualify for acquisition credits.